

26

Good Karma The contemporary furnishings and Asian antiques at KISMET are certain to add style and spirit to your home. One piece we're coveting is this bone-inlaid Fleur cube by Farrago. The Indian-made stool could serve as a side table or a seat; a pair would make a sensational coffee table.

27 One-stop kitchen shopping

At the new ARTISAN COUNTERTOPS showroom on the Post Road, you can scope out a huge selection of granites and marbles, displayed in oversized 4-foot by 2-foot samples. Artisan also carries Caesarstone and green counter options like recycled glass. Cabinetry can also be purchased at the same location.

28

Modern love One of the world's authorities on what's truly modern has her showroom just across the Saugatuck. PINA SIGNORELLO is a trendsetter whose vignettes are coolly dramatic. This extendable Athos dining table by B&B Italia—paired with Cassina's Hola leather chairs, a Proxima bowl by Kose and a Triade bird on the wall—reveal the calming powers of minimalism.

